

What Does This Place “Mean” ?

What and where is this place?

What features and living things do I see here?

What does this place feel like?

How am I responding to what I see in this place?

through my intellect

through my emotions, and

Why am I responding in this way?

What do I already know about this place?

What does this place remind me of?

Who comes here, and what is the evidence of any impact on this place?

What do I hear and smell in this place?

What are the textures of this place?

How do things in this place relate one to another?

What will or have I communicated about this place visually?

How is this place like or unlike other places that I know?